Coker is a thoughtful, committed candidate

Betsy Harrington Jun 3, 2016

In a large field of candidates for the newly drawn 13th Congressional District, Adam Coker rises above the others.

A native of Greensboro, he has lived and worked in several different parts of the new district, giving him unique ties to this entire region.

He is a small-business owner, with a broad work history, including corporate, nonprofit, construction, furniture and trucking.

Coker is a Democrat who is deeply committed to bringing less partisanship and more focus to the important issues that face all of us, regardless of party affiliation.

His positions on both domestic and foreign policy issues are informed and thoughtful. He has a head for fiscal accountability and a heart for service and social justice, with special concern for those who are struggling to survive and thrive in our society.

He is the only candidate to receive an endorsement from the Replacements Ltd. PAC.

Adam has a compelling personal story, which you can learn more about by visiting his website, www.cokerforhouse.com. If you are a registered Democrat or unaffiliated, I encourage you to cast your vote for Adam Coker for N.C. District 13.

The primary is Tuesday, and early voting is underway.
